Conclusion of Quintessential Miami: An Urban Retreat with a Miami Vibe

This is a tour of contrasts organized by Sallie Fraenkel of Body, Mind, Spirit Network: From silence and digital detoxing to sipping pisco sours and eating ceviche, to seeing some of the newest spa /wellness experiences in the Miami area to playing a little golf or doing Zumba, there is a little bit of everything in this Miami sampler. You have the option to have your urban retreat at the Mandarin Oriental for either one night or two. One thing is for sure – you will have some new and different experiences that are “quintessentially Miami!”

Living Wellness at Serenbe

Join us on this two-night tour and see why people at Serenbe say, "The best reason to live here is the life here." The founders (and GWS delegates), Steve and Marie Nygren, believe that if you want to change the world, you need to start in your own backyard. The first house at Serenbe was built in 2004, and today, the community is home to over 400 residents. Each of Serenbe's four hamlets have complementary commercial centers focused on the elements of a well-lived life: arts for inspiration, agriculture for nourishment, health for wellbeing and education for awareness.

Chable: Shamanism Meets Luxury

Ten years in the making, Chable opened its doors just months ago and is already garnering stellar press. With 38 private casitas nestled in nature, each with an infinity pool and built on 750 acres in the Mayan Jungle, Chable is just 25 minutes from Merida, the capital of the Yucatan. This is one of the only wellness resorts in the world that has its own cenote, a natural limestone swimming hole celebrated by the Mayans as the entrance to the sacred underworld. Chable offers indigenous Yucatecan healing spa and shamanic rituals, as well as inspired organic cuisine created by Executive Chef Jorge Vallejo of Quintonil, the #12 restaurant on the World's Best Restaurants list. Plus you'll definitely feel well after sampling their Tequila collection, which is rumored to be the largest in the world!
